

Saturday 9th April, Andy Slipper, Cynthia, Anne, Tony Miller and myself paddled the upper, non navigable section of the Thames between Cricklade and Castle Eaton, stopping at the Red Lion, where a sign welcomes canoeists, for lunch.

The river was a pleasant grade one with enough features to allow us to coach and improve our techniques ,without having to worry about the 7 mile slog after lunch to Letchlade