

BCCC Hasler 2009

We had another successful Hasler race on Sunday and despite the weather, we had 239 competitors. Thanks to everyone who organised and helped: it was much appreciated.

Overall, the BCCC came fifth in the points table behind Reading, Banbury, Pangbourne and Southampton but it was tight at the top with just seven points covering the top five places.

We had several excellent performances, notably from Jason Dyer, James Taylor and Chris Branch who each won their divisions and were promoted. Also gaining promotions were Nick Boreham, Ben Hansell, Mike Rees-Clark, Cameron Kelly and Mark Evans. Congratulations to each of them.

The Reading CC's race is this week-end when we look forward to some more tight battles.

If you are interested in racing please contact Richard Somerset or Brian Gandy or come along on a Saturday morning. The events are open to all ages from about 9 years and all abilities.
